

Mr. BRADY. Madam Speaker, reclaiming my time. Our colleagues have known for 2 years this debt ceiling was here, never passed a budget, never passed an appropriations bill. They let this crisis occur and built it time after time after time when we could easily have come together.

By the way, our Democrat colleagues hold the House; they hold the Senate; they hold the White House. They have the power to pass the debt ceiling, and they have had that for the entire year.

To my Democrat friends, you can try to sell this snake oil all you want, but the truth of the matter is, you wrecked a bipartisan agreement for your debt ceiling crisis. That is what we are voting on today.

Republicans support help for healthcare providers. We will not allow them to be held hostage to this debt ceiling crisis.

Madam Speaker, I urge strong opposition to this bill and urge my Democrat colleagues to someday work with us. Let's work together on these issues. I yield back the balance of my time.

□ 2000

Mr. HORSFORD. Madam Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

I will close by stating that, yes, Democrats are delivering. We are delivering for the American people. We are delivering in the time of a pandemic. We are delivering to restore public confidence in our public institutions and to help our economy recover. This bill is about important and responsible measures to deliver for the American people.

When the Republicans had the majority in the House, the Senate, and the White House, they chose to spend their time giving tax cuts to the very wealthy, to big corporations that provided little benefit to average Americans and to small businesses.

Now with Democrats in charge, we are delivering for the American people.

I urge my colleagues to support this important and responsible measure, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Ms. MCCOLLUM). All time for debate has expired.

Pursuant to House Resolution 838, the previous question is ordered on the bill, as amended.

The question is on the third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be read a third time, and was read the third time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on passage of the bill.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. BRADY. Madam Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to section 3(s) of House Resolution 8, the yeas and nays are ordered.

Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this question are postponed.
